

Watch the Trailer for our Upcoming TV Show <sup>[1]</sup>

Submitted by Rory Lattimer Thu, 2013-06-06 00:00

Ocean Alive! is a new television show now in production at Ocean Networks Canada and the University of Victoria that invites you into the mysterious world of our deep sea.

The ocean covers almost 3/4 of the planet's surface ? it provides food and resources, moderates climate and supports most of the life on earth. But much of our ocean is unexplored and poorly understood, at the same time it's being stressed and threatened by human society.

Highlighting the world of leading-edge scientific research and technological innovation at Ocean Networks Canada and its partners around the world, Ocean Alive! plans to explore the nature of our vast, yet vulnerable ocean.

Watch for Ocean Alive! this September on Shaw TV.
