

Strait of Georgia Array Online <sup>[1]</sup>

Submitted by Rory Lattimer Fri, 2013-03-08 00:00

After several months of ?silence?, our instruments in the Strait of Georgia [2] are alive again, with data streaming into the database, and out to users via the website.

According to Paul Macoun, ?it was a short and intense cruise aboard the Oceanic Surveyor?. A small team of two from Ocean Networks Canada, and the crew of the Remotely Operated Vehicle Oceanic Explorer reinstalled instrument platforms at the Central [2] and Eastern [3] nodes in the Strait, and recovered three experiments from Saanich Inlet [4].
