

Anniversary for Saanich Inlet Node Upgrades <sup>[1]</sup>

Submitted by Rory Lattimer Tue, 2012-07-24 00:00

[2]

This month it has been a year since the 5-year old Saanich Inlet node was upgraded by our industry partner, OceanWorks International <sup>[3]</sup>, to expand its capabilities to support science on VENUS Observatory. According to our engineering team, the node has been performing to specifications providing power and communication to the seafloor network of sensors.

The Saanich Inlet node supports the longest time series on VENUS Observatory.
